Dear Funster,

Welcome to the Easter Rally. If this is your first time with us you might be disappointed to learn that we don't have an initiation ceremony, sorry about that 😊 Once parked up, if your rally marshal hasn't already done so, please do introduce yourself to your neighbours.

There is plenty to do this weekend, the Camperfest organisers have a full program of entertainment. Some Funsters will join in with this, most won't. The city is just a short walk away and the food festival starts on Saturday. For many the best part of a rally is the chat; if you want to meet people, get out of your van, grab a coffee, or a beer and wander around the rally area; there is always someone around to talk to. If you'd rather stay in with a book, do that, no one minds. Our rallies are laid back affairs, no one will insist that you take part in anything; you are free to spend your weekend as you wish.

We have a few optional get-togethers happening in the marquee and as ever I'm sure there will be some impromptu gathering. There may well be other organized things going on, so keep an eye on the notice board.

Coffee and a Jacobs table of Cake - Saturday 10:45 am Don't forget to bring your own mug of tea or coffee.

Easter Sunday Breakfast - Between 10am and 11am

Our Sunday morning bacon rolls are always popular at just £1 a roll. You bring the beverages we'll supply the Bacon

Sunday Night Music with Janine and Barrie 7pm

Hook ups are available for those that ordered them. We will be able to charge a flat battery for you, so if you get into trouble please shout. The organisers forbid the use of generators on site however as we are out of the way you may use a generator for a short while to say; operate a hair drier or similar but under no circumstances should a genny be run before 9am or after 7pm and never for longer than one hour.

We hope you enjoy this rally. If you have any problems at all over the weekend please don't hesitate to come and see us at our van or alternatively you can contact us on

Have a fun filled happy Easter

Jim, Siân, Carol and Eddie.
